

ABSTRACTS SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Structure of an abstract:

Word Count: 250 words

Categories: original articles, research articles, diagnostic and analytical accuracy research and Audit, innovation.

A structured abstract shall consist of following headings:

Objective

Present a background for the study. State the purpose or objective of the study. Explain the hypothesis and the requirement of the research. The primary and secondary objective of the study should be clearly stated. This is at times called the primary and secondary outcome.

Methods

Methods section may include, as appropriate:

Subjects (samples) and methods, Patients and methods, Materials and methods

Components of the methodology which need to be mentioned as applicable are:

Study design, Study setting, Study duration, Sampling method & Sample size, Follow-up period, Inclusion and exclusion criteria, Identification of the methods and apparatus and manufacturer's details.

Results

The results should include the salient findings without analysis and statistical methods be described in a simple manner to enable the audience/reader to judge the correctness of the analysis and results. References may be included where appropriate.

ABSTRACTS SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Conclusion

Conclusion should be a brief summary of the study. A new hypothesis may be included if determined by the research.

Conflict of Interest

Any conflict of interest should be declared, which may include grants or honorarium, credits and promotions, memberships or any personal or professional relationships which may appear to influence the manuscript. If there are no conflict of interests, speaker should still include this heading and write “none to declare.”

Ethical approval and Funding disclosure

For ethical approval, please mention Institutional review board name and number, if available. All sources of grant/fund received should be disclosed.